

CRESCENT HARDWARE CO.

Stores, Ranges, House Furnishing Goods, Cutlery, Tools, Iron Pipe, Valves and Fittings, Plumbing, Heating, Tin and Copper Work.

418 W. CENTRAL AVE.

TELEPHONE 215

PANCAKES
Made Out of
PEERLESS PANCAKE FLOUR
WITH CAMP FIRE SYRUP
Make a Most Delicious Breakfast

LYRIC
THEATER
TODAY and TOMORROW

"The Failure"

Mutual Masterpiece in Four Reels, Featuring

JOHN EMERSON AND OLGA GRAY

A Photoplay Full of Real Human Interest and Rich Sentiment. A Drama of Newspeople and Theatrical Life. Superbly Staged and Acted.

The Broken Coin

EPISODE ELEVEN, "THE CLASH OF ARMS"

WITH GRACE CUNARD
AND FRANCIS FORD

COMING SUNDAY

Should a Wife Forgive?

"EQUITABLE" Feature With
Lillian Lorraine as the OTHER Woman.

FLAVORING EXTRACTS

RASPBERRY
PINEAPPLE
ORANGE
PEPPERMINT
CINNAMON
NUTMEG
ALSPICE
CELERI
WINTERGREEN
ALMOND
LEMON
VANILLA

FOOD COLORING

All of the Highest Grade.
Buy Your Supply on Hand.
Then You Have No Delays.

WARD'S STORE

HOMER H. WARD Mgr.
815 Marble Ave. Phones 298-299.

Strong Brothers
Undertakers

MUTUAL SERVICE, PHONE
74 STRONG BLK, COPPER
AND SECOND.

LOCAL ITEMS
OF INTEREST

While they last, at all grocers,
juicy Jonathan apples, $1.50 box.

A meeting of Adam Chapter, O. E. S., will be held at 7:30 o'clock to-night at the Masonic temple. Officers will be installed.

Professor Stewart W. Young, head of the department of chemistry at Leland Stanford university, was a visitor in Albuquerque yesterday.

While they last, at all groceries,
juicy Jonathan apples, $1.50 box.

N. M. Gudalo brought suit yesterday in the district court against Angelo Parenti, alleging that the defendant owes $12 on an automobile sold in October.

A. G. Knecht, St. Louis, western secretary of the railway department of the association spoke of the importance of the railway officials whom they had met and of the dedication of the building at Altona, a division point on the Denver & Rio Grande, at which they were present.

DETROIT President Here.

C. O. Cushman, president of the board of directors, was toastmaster. Dr. Peter Roberts, the first speaker, explained his system of teaching English to aliens. He was followed by Mr. Howarth, president of the Detroit, Mich., V. M. C. A., who happened to be in Albuquerque on business. Mr. Howarth told of the million dollar building in Detroit.

A. G. Knecht, St. Louis, western secretary of the railway department of the association spoke of the importance of the railway officials whom they had met and of the dedication of the building at Altona, a division point on the Denver & Rio Grande, at which they were present.

Hopes to Come Back.

John F. Moore, New York, senior secretary of the railway department of the international committee, was greatly pleased with the interior arrangement of the Albuquerque building.

He hopes to be here for the opening of the building.

BROTHERS SAY THEY STOLE TO EAT; BUT SISTER ASSERTS NO

Three small boys, the eldest of whom is 13 years old, were sent home by Chief Thomas McMillin because of their age. The trio, whose name is Steinford, was accused of "swiping" bacon from a butcher shop on Main Street.

They told a wistful story of having to steal to get something to eat.

Patricia Pablos Ladan went to their home. Their mother was away working, but their sister said they were not in want for provisions.

'GAY OLD BOY' MAKES HIT AT THE CRYSTAL

The lecture will begin at 8:15 o'clock. Admission for adults will be 50 cents, for children and students, 25 cents.

OPPORTUNITY OF LIFETIME TO SEE
ALASKA AS IT IS

Those who want to see Alaska as it is and not as it has been idealized in the stories of romantic writers should not fail to hear the lecture of Harry E. Lee at the auditorium to-night.

Mr. Lee is an explorer who has recently explored. He has not gone into the beaten paths but has gone into the byways to see what he could find, and what he has found will be shown to the people of Albuquerque in his lecture tonight. Stereopticon views of some of the most interesting sights in the frozen north will be thrown on the screens, and the entertaining manner and pleasing style of the lecturer are sure to please those who attend.

The lecture will begin at 8:15 o'clock. Admission for adults will be 50 cents, for children and students, 25 cents.

GEORGE C. SCHOTZ, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

FRANK TROTTER, the well-known

West Texas hand-made, broadleaf cigar, in cans of 25, $1.00 the can. Here's a Christmas suggestion for him.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.

Announcement has been made that because the Holiday dinner at the Elks Club will be served in the ball room, the women will be entertained in the dining room of the club.

SPRINGER, the furniture dealer and alderman from First Ward, is confined in his home, 112 North Edith street, with sickness. He expects, however, to be at his store Friday.

J. J. Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Duran, has departed for New Orleans and to Mobile, La., where they will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. They will be absent about a month.

The Albuquerque Police Association will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Secretary Wiegert is anxious that all members attend so matters of importance will come up for discussion.